The Museum of Contemporary Art Tokyo is an art museum located in Koto-ku, Tokyo, that aims to promote contemporary art. It has an excellent collection that gives a survey of Japanese post-war art. Since 1945, the museum has also held exhibitions on a wide range of contemporary art, centered on both domestic and international art.

We delivered eight Fujitec escalators to the museum. They help visitors move smoothly and comfortably through the museum, which has three floors underground and three aboveground.
