The St. Regis Singapore is built on Orchard Road, a well-known thoroughfare running through the center of Singapore.

The St. Regis is a super high-class hotel, part of the Starwood Group.

The complex consists of the hotel building and the St. Regis Residence, a 20-story high-grade condominium.

It is served by 27 Fujitec elevators including high-class models. Suitably matched for the six-star hotel, the elevator car interiors and landings are finished with composing and dignified design, creating a luxurious atmosphere."
