Hotel Collective is a new urban hotel fully equipped with multiple functional facilities where visitors and guests can experience utmost comfort and relaxation.

This hotel has thirteen (13) floors above ground and one (1) floor below ground, and stands facing to Kokusai-dori Street which is the most famous main street in Naha City, Okinawa Prefecture.

As prominent functional facilities, there are a chapel and an outdoor swimming pool that create very luxury and comfortable spaces.

Seven (7) units of Fujitec elevators are installed in this hotel. The double ceiling adopted for the elevator interior creates an indirect and soft illumination, and brings gentleness to various visitors and guests.

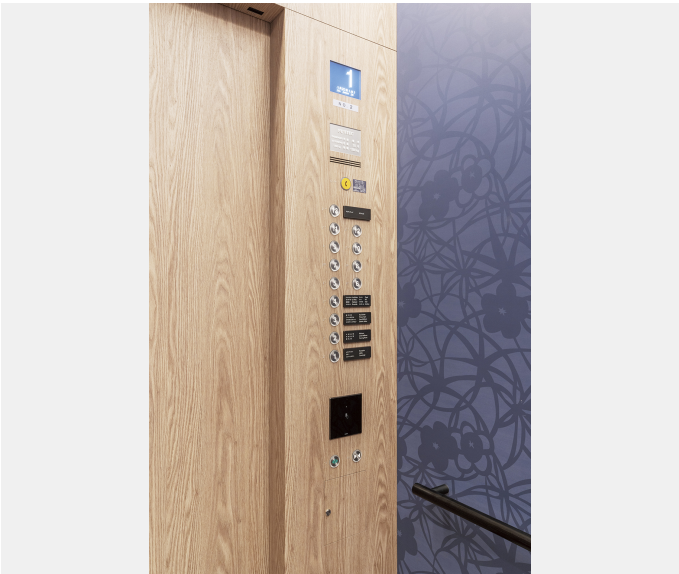

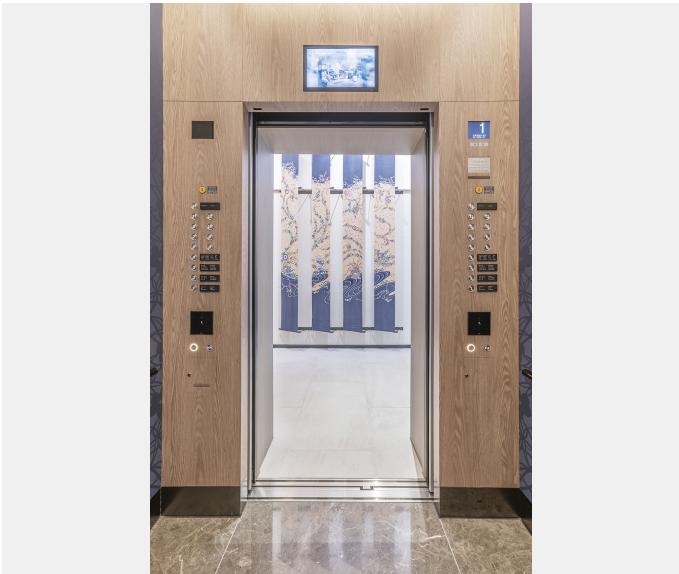

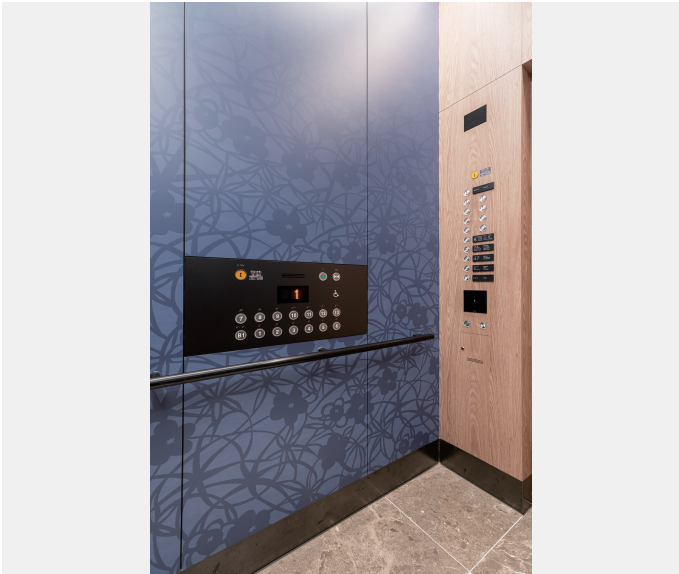

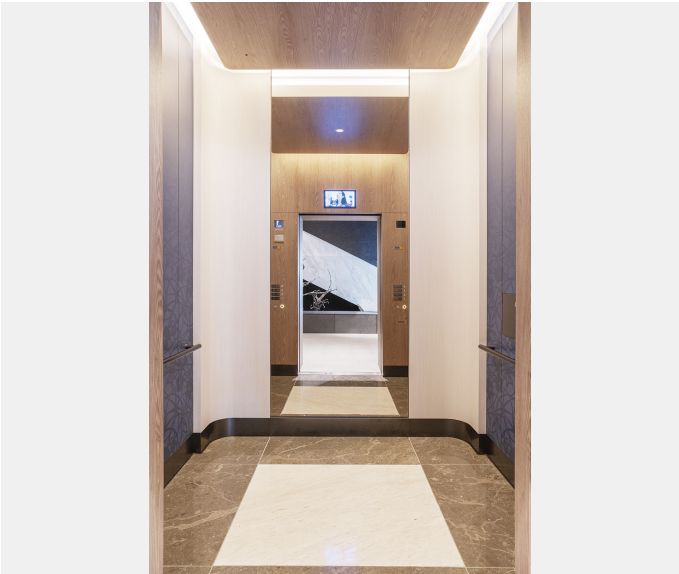

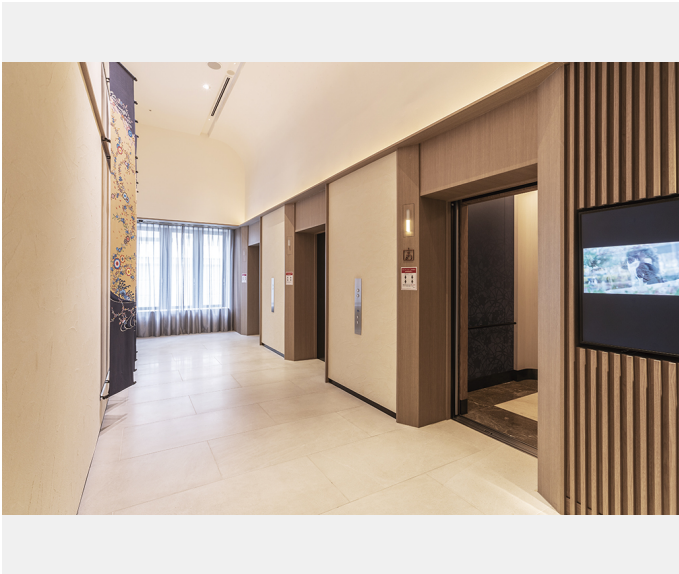

The atmosphere created by the rounded corner on the both sides of the rear wall of each elevator matches the feature of roundness mainly adopted for the structural design of the hotel.
