Shanghai Bank Tower is located in the Pudong district, which is the international financial center of Shanghai. Shanghai is the central city for the Chinese economy.

In this building, 25 Fujitec elevators, including super high-speed models traveling up to 360 mpm, are in operation.

In the elevator hall, the transom panels extending to the ceiling are strikingly impressive, and the splendidly designed car interiors create a classy atmosphere.

The high-class office building, with a total area of 108,000m<sup>2</sup> and a height of 230 meters, serves as a new landmark in the Pudong district.
