Located to the north of Kobe and known as an “annex” to the Kansai area, Arima Onsen is one of Japan’s oldest hot springs. Tokyu Harvest Club Arima Rokusai is a membership resort hotel standing on a hillside commanding a panoramic view of the spa. The building with six floors above ground and four underground features beauty including bamboo woods, a waterfall and a pond, which are all modeled after the Arima rokkei or the six beautiful landscapes of Arima. Elegantly designed Fujitec elevators match the decor. In the elevator cars, walls featuring elegant and calm wood grain combine with the downlights in the ceiling and indirect lighting to underline the establishment’s exclusive character.
